WHOLE NUMBER, 11,362.

THE WEATHER IN RICHMOND YESTERDAY WAS

GOODS FOR THE HOLIDAYS. The Largest Stock, THE BEST ASSORTED STOCK.

CLOAKS.

CARPETS

ON OUR SECOND FLOOR.

SPECIAL GREAT SALE

TRIMMED AND ENTRIMMED Hats and Bonnets,

Black and Colored West Polt Spilor Bats good quality Triumes value Hate, all colors, with band, six riston. Laws-Tenule Hate-Navy, Cardinal, and Brown.

Trimmed Lawn feature, with eith cord.
Diack woo Fell Halm (good chaper).
Wife-bound, all colors and black, best quality Wool Fell, Low.
Imitation Sik Hatters Phosh, black and all shapes)
Finest quality and latest shapes Fine French
Figure 1,35 and $1.50

> TRIMMED HATS AND BONNETS AT SPECIALLY LOW PRICES THIS WEEK.

RIBBONS, TIPS, AND PANCY PEATHERS AT YOUR OWN PINCES.

Six Flushes, all colors—former price $1.20, Soc. Fine quantity Silk Velvet—former price 23, 200 Fabry Norte Silks and Velvets at half former Representation of the Packham vs. Reynolds, and Roberta, administrator, vs. Alexandria and Fredericksburg Rasiroad Company. Reheaving denied.

413 east Broad street.

FURNITURE, &c. ESTABLISHED 1830.

a winds, becoming south A NUMBER OF DECISIONS FROM THE SU-PREME COURT OF APPEALS.

> Proceedings Yesterday in Several of the > Richmond Tribunals of Justice—
>
> ble. The jury soon returned a verdict for the defendant.
>
> The plaintiff in his declaration alleged Telegraph Case.

the recently-adopted custom each judge read one opinion and each of the other opinions was handed down to the clerk with the simple announcement of the style of the custom the control of the custom that the simple announcement of the buggy a distance of one hundred yards, indicting sections.

decedent, Ferguson, was non compus-mentis by reason of infirmity when the Another and those ELEGANT bornith FACED conveyance in question was made, and that undue influence was exerted to cause him to make it; also that there was required and and Alleghany Railroad Company and the late Southern Telegraph Company to a sum of the property of the inadequate consideration. The opinion is a lengthy and able one.

and diseasses all the questions raisedand they are of frequent occurrence—in the light of the latest authorities. REINSURANCE - NOTICE OF CANCELLATION.

vs. The Scottish Union and National Insurance Company. From the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond. Reversed, Judge Lacy delivering the opinion.

Here it was held that notice of cancel-LEVY & DAVIS.

lation of a policy given Claiborne & ture and sell clothing and men's furnishing goods; the capital stock of the company to be not less than $15,000, with client; that by the terms of the contract pany to be not less than $15,000, with arred or their agent. Though it was proved that there had been a custom here to notify the agents who had effected the insurance or reissurance the dent: Gustavus Willesson for the insurance or reissurance the dent: Gustavus Willesson for the insurance or reissurance to reissurance the dent: Gustavus Willesson for the insurance or reissurance the dent: Gustavus Willesson for the result of increasing the same to Landon Cabell. Next entered in couples the dozen bridesmaids—namely: Misses Ann Carter W. Branch, and Henry Landon Cabell. Next entered in couples the dozen bridesmaids—namely: Misses Ann Carter W. Branch, and Henry Landon Cabell. Next entered in couples the dozen bridesmaids—namely: Misses Ann Carter W. Branch, and Henry Landon Cabell. Next entered in couples the dozen bridesmaids—namely: Misses Ann Carter W. Branch, and Henry Landon Cabell. Next entered in couples the dozen bridesmaids—namely: Misses Ann Carter W. Branch, and Henry Landon Cabell. Next entered in couples the dozen bridesmaids—namely: Misses Ann Carter W. Branch, and Henry Landon Cabell. Next entered in couples the dozen bridesmaids—namely: Misses Ann Carter W. Branch, and Henry Landon Cabell. Next entered in couples the dozen bridesmaids—namely: Misses Ann Carter W. Branch, and Henry Landon Cabell. Next entered in couples the dozen bridesmaids—namely: Misses Ann Carter W. Branch, and Henry Landon Cabell. Next entered in couples the dozen bridesmaids—namely: Misses Ann Carter W. Branch, and Henry Landon Cabell. Next entered in couples the dozen bridesmaids—namely: Misses Ann Carter W. Branch, and Henry Landon Cabell. Next entered in couples the dozen bridesmaids—namely: Misses Ann Carter W. Branch, and Henry Landon Cabell. Next entered in couples the dozen bridesmaids—namely: Misses Ann Carter W. Branch, and Henry Landon Cabell. Next entered in couples the dozen bridesmaids—namely: Misses Ann Carter W. Branch, and Henry Landon Cabell. Next entered in couples the dozen bridesmaids—namely: Misses Ann Carter W. Branch, and Henry Landon Cabe sured or their agent. Though it was proved that there had been a custom here to notify the agents who had effected the insurance or reinsurance, the court held that no usage could control the rules of law or vary an express contract. The notice should have been to the assured or their agent; and though the assured or their agent; and though the assured or their agent; and though the insurance or other should be considered as a provision in the policy that the insurance of others should be considered as a provision in the policy that the insurance of others should be considered as a provision in the policy that the insurance of others should be considered as a provision in the policy that the insurance of others should be considered as a provision in the policy that the insurance of others should be considered as a provision in the place of the firm of Maury and the insurance of others should be considered as a provision in the place of the large of the groom).

Next entered in couples the dozen bridesmaids—namely: Misses Ann Carter (sister of the groom), Hattic Ross, term of the groom), Hattic Ross, the left is groom). Several other persons expected to take part in the exercises were unavoidably absent, somewhat abridging the programme, which, however, lasted until after midnight, but altogether the entire affair was a success and reflected brides sister), and Miss Juliet Carter (sister of the groom). the rules of law or vary an express contract. The notice should have been to the assured or their agent; and though cred the agents of the insurer and assured, the court construed that as meaning agents for the placing of the insurance and not for the purpose here employed as an overlander at the Danville depot yard, on the 2d of March was under a car which stood on a branch t-ack putting in a drawbar spring. While thus engaged cars that were being shifted were driven against the accused was arrested a policy-vender's book containing a list of the fickets. depot yard, on the 2d of March was under a car which stood on a branch track putting in a drawbar spring. While thus engaged cars that were being shifted were driven against the car which was being repaired. Mr. Norment's hand was pocket.

Richmond and Danville Railroad Com-

The officiating clergymen were Rev. The officiation clergymen were Rev. The of repaired. Mr. Norment's hand was caught between the drawbar and spring can making it badly and causing the base of one finger and a portion of smother. Mr. Norment brought suit repaired the nulroad company in the regainst the nulroad company in the repaired. When the nuptial knot had been tied the function of the sickness of Judge Atkins Judge Wellford officiated in the regainst the nulroad company in the Hustings Court yesterday. No cases

Jones is a colored man, who was formerly postmaster of Boydton and afterwards a member of the Bouse of of the canvass two years ago, when Jones was accused of having stolen a letter was accused of having stolen a letter ground that Johnson claimed that he from the mails and when there were had been illegally convicted. The case various other charges against him. As to the letter business Jones was examined discharged. Having brought suit against
Mr. Finch for slander, tibel, and malicious prosecution, the defendant insisted

At the annual meeting of the Commandery of St. Andrew, No. 13, Knights Templars, held at St. Albans Hall that the action of the United States Wednesday night, the following officers Commissioner was not a determination were elected for the ensuing twelve of the question before him; that the grand jury could still indict, &c. This view Judge Wellford sustained, and the case went off on that point; but the Supreme Court overraied Judge Wellford, budding that for the commander; George P. Stacy, generalissimo; F. C. Ebel, captain-general; Parker T. Conrad, prelate; L. T. Christian, schior warden; L. P. Ecker, junior

OTHER CASES.

hvering the opinion.

McArter vs. Griggsley. From the Circuit Court of Loudoun. Reversed, Judge Lacy delivering the opinion.

Eggleton vs. Whittle, receiver. From the Circuit Court of Henry. Affirmed, Judge Fanutlerov delivering the opinion several years, and deserves the recegnition which has been given of his efforts.

Garland's administrator vs. Garland's To Mark the Spot where Stuart Fell. administrator. From the Circuit Court of Lynchburg. Reversed, Judge Fauntleroy delivering the opinion.

Torian's administrator vs. Richmond and Alleghany Bailroad Company. From the Circuit Court of Nelson. Reversed, the Yellow Tavern. The day is to be here-Judge Bichardson delivering the opin- atter selected.

Rehearing denied. Smith & Wimsatt vs. Chilton, as- pate in the ceremonies.

signee. Put on privilege docket. Mr. Belvin Gets No Damages-Other

Circuit-Court Matters. The case of Charles E. Belvin es. The The case of Charles E. Belvin vs. The City of Richmond, for $10,000, was tried in the City Circuit Court yesterday. Judge Joseph Christian and Messrs. Atkinson & Davies appeared for the plaintiff, and City-Attorney Charles V. Meredith represented the city. The followkinson & Davies appeared for the plain-tiff, and City-Attorney Charles V. Mere-dith represented the city. The follow-tertaining.

rope was tied across the street at the order of the Judge of the Hustings Court the city of Richmond was not responsithat the city of Bichmond on the 21st of February, 1887, obstructed Capitol street between Ninth and Tenth streets one not sit, and consequently a number of opinions which were ready were not made public. On yesterday, therefore, there was a double lot. According to the recently-adopted custom each indge

The court has now the docket under complete control, and will have swept it clean very nearly when they get ready the Richmond and Alleghany Rainord clean very nearly when they get ready to adjourn at the end of the spring term.

Yesterday they gave notice that they chancery order enjoining the New York A content of FANCY TIDIES AND COMPANY TO DESCRIPTIONS: AND COMPANY TO DECORATIONS: AND RESERVED TO DECO lators, instruments, or other properties CONVEYANCE SET ASIDE.

CONVEYANCE SET ASIDE.

FISHBURNE PROFESSOR AND THATS

CLOTUS AND NAPKINS AND THATS

CLOTUS AND NAPKINS IN SETS TO

CLOTUS AND NAPKIN maintenance of the said lines or from conducting its telegraph business over the said lines in accordance with the contract laboratory and lonorably in the annals of the carly and honorably in the annals of the Colomb and Douglas L. Leftwich. senting.

In this case the court held that the maintenance of the said lines or from

Judge Wellford yesterday granted a pany, the object of which is to manufacture and sell clothing and men's furnish-$10,000 to recover money berrowed by the City Council in 1854. The bond, which fell due the 1st of July, 1887, is which fell due the 1st of July, 1887, is procession. Reaching the chancel rail signed Gustavus A. Myers, President of the ushers fell back and ranged themthe City Council.

Sent On for Selling Policy-Tickets. pany vs. Norment. From the Circuit Court of Richmond. Affirmed, Judge Kishardson delivering the opinion; Judge Fauntieroy filing a dissenting a certain game called policy. The chief Frank yesterday morning charged with playing a certain game called policy. The chief witness, Amelia Bently (colored), who got mad with Spottswood, went to bis clear.

The railread company took the case to the Supreme Court, resulting as above peared before his Honor and qualified tered.

who was convicted of petit larceny in July last by 'Squire F. T. Ruggs. Ruggs's term of office expired the 1st of July, and he was not aware of the fact when he had a specific to the bridge when he had a specific to the bridge with the convergence of the bridge party were present. This morning at 2:30 o'clock the newly-wedded couple took the train for Asheville, N. C., where they will stay when he heard the case. It is upon this about ten days or two weeks. is set for trial on Monday next.

Commandery of St Andrew. Supreme Court overruled Judge Wellford—bolding that for the purposes of this litigation the question before the United States Commissioner was determined. Now the case is returned to Judge Weliford for a new trial.

ALIMONY.

Cralle vs. Cralle. From the Circuit

George L. Street, warder: John Henry Powell, first guard; W. Fred. Pleasants, third guard; John T. Sizer, steward; J. A.

guard; John T. Sizer, steward; J. A. Court of Nottoway. Affirmed in part and reversed in part. Judge Lewis delivering the opinion.

This was a question of alimony—when payment of it should begin and out of what property it should be paid.

The court hald here the court hald begin and out of the guard and sentimel; J. J. English, Jr., A. C. Harman, R. H. M. Harrison, C. W. Macfarlane, Arthur L. Pleasants, stewards' committee.

the wife, was as much a subject of charge as any other of his assets or property.

Yesterday the annual meeting of the stockholders of the V ginia Steamboat Company was held at the company's Dugger es, Dugger. From the Cor- office in this city. Reports from the poration Court of Danville. Reversed, officers of the company were read. They Judge Fauntleroy delivering the opinion. Y. Stokes & Co. lose a considerable | during the past year to have been very debt by this decision), Graveley vs. Graveley. From the Corporation Court of Danville. Reversed, Judge Richardson delivering the darking the past year of satisfactory. The following officers were then elected for one year: President, B.

F. Clyde, of Philadelphia; Vice-President, L. B. Tatum; Secretary and Audi-Kerr es. Kerr. From the Circuit of B. F. Clyde, of Philadelphia; W. P. Angusta. Affirmed, Judge Hinton de-livering the opinion. Clyde, of New York; J. W. McCarrick, of Norfolk; L. B. Tatum and E. O.

Judge Fauntlerov delivering the opin- tion which has been given of his efforts.

The Stuart Monument Association met in Governor Lee's office yesterday morning and agreed to dedicate next spring Governor Lee has consented to de-Lord & Packham vs. Reynolds, and liver the address. The Stuart Horse to Investigation of Policeman Guards, administrator, vs. Alexandria Guards, Hanover Troop, the surviving Adams's Case Begun. members of the Confederate cavalry, and

"Without a Home," in which occurs a wolf scene, will be played at the Acad-

OPINIONS AND SUITS. cluded and the case was ready to be submitted Judge Wellford instructed the jury that if the evidence showed that the

A Grand Assemblage of Fashion and Beauty and a Ceremony of More Than Usual Interest.

The consecrated building, which is one ground, and dragging her under the buggy a distance of one hundred yards, almost suffocatingly so—body and gallery style of the case, name of the court from which it came, and the word "reversed" or "affirmed," as the case might be.

The court he case might be. PREPARATORY.

> carefully arranged. The consequence was one of the most brilliant and elaborate weddings that ever took place in Additional lustre was given the cerelators, instruments, or other properties connected with the telegraph line along the road of the Bichmond and Alleghany Railroad Company until a further order of the court, but this order does not present the court of the court, but this order does not present the court of the court the road of the Bichmond and Alleghany > Railroad Company until a further order > of the court, but this order does not preof the court, but the court of the court worthiest citizens, is the father of the Colony and Commonwealth of Virginia.

Extensive preparation had been made for the affair, and all possible details were

ERIDAL PARTY.

THE ERIDE AND GROOM.

elves against the walls near the chancel. The maids formed a crescent around the public-spirited business-men of the city. A young colored man named Buck railing, leaving an open space in the Jones is a colored man, who was formula by a Justice Triage took place at the elegant residence of the bride's father, on west Franklin street, at the corner of Jefferson. Only near relatives and members of the bridal street, at the corner of Jefferson.

COSTUMES.

ing in graceful folds over her shoulders, hyacinths and in the other an ivorybound prayer-book and hymnal. The four pink, four yellow, and four green. With the green aigrettes ferns were also worn. Each carried a bouquet of flowers The music was furnished by Mr. H. I. Solomons, organist of the church, who by the same club for early presentation. before and during the service played several selections—among them; fertoure in C" (Baptiste), "Sere (Schubert), and "March Flambean The court held here that the earnings is the husband, divorced at the suit of Steambeat Company.

[Sentioert], and As a processional and recessional he rendered that grand old wedding march of Mendelssohn's. DECORATIONS The chancel of the church was luxuriantly decorated with ferus and cedar. An immense bank of them obscured the commandment tables, and on each side was profuse arrangements of green. The this morning at 10 o'clock.

way, with closed sides, running from the curbstone to the front steps, had oridal party formed before marching ternoon.

Mr. Carter is one of Richmond's rising young lawyers. He is a partner of his cousin, Mr. Thomas Nelson Page. His bride is fair and an esteemed member of this role before with great success. ber of socity here. Many friends wish them all possible happiness.

ROBBERY OR NO ROSBERY?

Yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock the part with him very reluctantly. other military organizations, will participate in the ceremonies.

Board of Police Commissioners met in the office of Police and began an investigation of Policeman J.

C. Adams's case.
Mr. Adams, as has been stated before, Mr. Adams, as has been stated before, Vulcan Iron-Works to a white man who reported at the First station last Monday had been taken sick while at work. He the larceny of $114 in money and some jewelry from his house, 621 north Twenty-fifth street. The matter was investigated and the police arrived at the con-clusion that no robbery had been com-case, stated that Adams's wife told him mostly Chesapeake and Obio men—into only $7 or $8 had been stolen.

next month, when other witnesses will be summoned to appear. Among them will be Mr. Sam. Michaels, Captain other States of the Union, particularly Pleasants, Justice-of-the-Peace Donati, Policeman W. B. Whitlock, and Sergeant J. P. Jeter. A point which will be sought to be established is that Adams attempted to borrow $100 very recently. This is regarded as tending to show that was adopted for the entertainment to be given by them in the spring for the Virginia Council, No. 26, Royal Areaalmost sufficeatingly so—body and gallery aike. The congregation was largely composed of fashionable people, and the number of beautiful girls present was very large.

Viginia Councu, No. 20, Boyal Arcain was largely aike. The congregation was largely the lower hall of the Academy of Music days of the year, so will this flower of charity expand its perfections under the vernal ray and flourish with the spring.

Wignia Councu, No. 20, Boyal Arcain was largely num, celebrated its tenta anniversary in a work underground through the dark days of the year, so will this flower for Which nature is secretly num, celebrated its tenta anniversary in a work underground through the dark days of the year, so will this flower of charity expand its perfections under the vernal ray and flourish with the spring.

Wignia Councu, No. 20, Boyal Arcain work underground through the dark days of the year, so will this flower of the Charles Reid, day and the year of the year, so will this flower of the year, so will this flower of the year, so will this flower of the year, so will the days of the year, so will this flower of the year, so will the grant of the year, so will the year, so will the year, so will the grant of the year, so will the year, presented a pretty appearance. The ta-bles were heavily ladened with choice viands and all of the appointments were of the best. The audience, composed very largely of elegantly-dressed ladies, was a much more brilliant one than is usually een on such occasions.

After the well-whetted appetites had gramme was inaugurated. This consisted of toasts, which were interspersed with vocal selections by Miss Lizzie Jor-The address of welcome was de-livered by Councilman A. H. Kaufman, who is regent of the connand the late Southern Telegraph Company and the late Southern Telegraph Company.

About fifteen minutes after the time stated the bridal party entered. It was preceded by two boys, Willie F. Mayo and Spencer Carter, who banded the that from what they had heard they feared the telegraph company was going to abandon its contract, which, among other the pews they attached the bands abandon its contract, which, among other the contract of the con Mutual Assurance Society of Virginia
Mutual Assu

> (chairman), William F. Drinkard, R. G. The bride, with her arm in her Stuart, Henry Myer, J. A. Hirshberg, father's, followed and closed the bridal L. A. Whiting, Charles C. Rady.

This council is in a flourishing condition, and in its membership may be found many of the most energetic and

MANCHESTER IN SHORT SPACE. Mrs. Barrett's Funeral-The Dramatic Club-Personal, &c.

The funeral of Mrs. W. T. Barrett, whose sudden death on Sunday last was reported in the Dispatch, took place from the Bainbridge-Street Baptist George W. Tolby, O. I. Merritt, James Moore, Lycander Hobson, and Mr. Deamon. The interment was made at Maury cemetery. Mrs. Barrett was but twenty-eightyearsold when she died. Her ived in Memphis this evening and twenty-eightyearsold when she died. Her ived in Memphis this evening and three-professor Interpidis direction next week at the Theatre, can be proposed to manufacture. Cloaks," the opera which is to be given under Professor Interpidis direction next week at the Theatre, can be prohusband was at his home in Detroit at the time, and being apprised of the sad intelligence by wire at once started for here, arriving Wednesday morning. Mr. Barrett will return to Detroit to-

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Helen Atkinson, whose death Wednesday at the residence of her husband, Mr. George A most attractive feature of the mar-ringe was the attire of the bride and her Decatur streets, was announced in this maids. The former was robed in an exquisite gown of white Peau de Soie, made by La Ferreine, of Paris. The front had a covering of white silk muslin and was trimmed with Brussels lace bank, Mrs. Atkinson's father, was dead, point de Flandres). The garniture was was erroneous. He is enjoying good white ribbon velvet. A tulle veil, fail- health and is a highly-respected citizen.

DRAMATIC AND MUSICAL. completed the costume. In one hand she carried a large bouquet of white drama, will be given by the Manchester fired at Thomas and Hamlet, who were fired at Thomas and Hamlet, who were Music and Dramatic Club about the in the skiff, and when last seen they were horehound, wild cherry, and pure pine middle of this month at Cersley's Hall going in the direction of where their tar. maids were clothed in white moire and with the following cast]: Nancy Nippee, companions had been killed. The negauze cut decollete. All wore aigrettes— Miss Robina Shanks; Bess Bradley, Miss gross on Cat island outnumber the Miss Robina Shanks; Bess Bradley, Miss Annie Jones; May Manning, Miss Hattie
Wells; Simon Stone, B. F. Pilson; Roy Manning, Willie Mathews; Marcus
Graves, W. G. Owens; Mat Windsor, Charles Sawtelle.

The Little Tycoon is being rehearsed

DEATHS: Many will learn with regret of the death of Edwin, the only son of Mr. B. J. Walker, the popular agent of the Richmond and Danville railroad in this city. He was an exceedingly interesting little fellow. He died suddenly on Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker have the sympathy of a host of friends in their sudden bereavement. Funeral from the family residence, south Belvidere street,

Mrs. Sallie G. Mead, who died at the whole scene was made brilliant with dozens of wax candles and candelabra.

The reading-desk was removed, and in its place stood the brass lecture.

Outside of the church an awning archord of young womanhood, having but reof young womanhood, having but recently attained her twenty-second year. been erected, and inside was laid a strip ber of months, and her demise was not of carpet. The porch of the building bad been planked in on all sides, form bushed survive her. The function has been planked in on all sides, form bushed survive her. The function is husband survive her. The funeral will ing a sort of vestibule, and in this the take place at Granite at 3 o'clock this af-

> PERSONALS AND BRIEFS Miss Lelia C. Ballowe will play the part of "Yum-Yum" in the rendition of

The children of "The Saturday-After-noon Meeting" of Fifth-Street Metho-and the right to dietate rules about dist church will give interesting exer-cises at the church Sunday at 31 o'clock P. M. The public are invited

Work of the ambulance. About 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning will use their knowled the city ambulance was called to the against the ship-owners.

was carried home. A few hours later the ambulance was summoned to the corner of Second and Canal streets to a white child who had fallen in the street with convulsions. It was relieved and left with some of the

Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers,

At a meeting held on Thursday after noon by the ladies interested in the un-dertaking the name of "Fruhlingsfest"

early flower for which nature is secretly

The Law and Order League. There will be a meeting of all the chapters of the Law and Order Leauge order and of the community. been fully satisfied, and while choice Subjects have been assigned and each wines were being drunk and good cigars smoked, the second part of the pro-> discussion.

>
> A Richmond Bog Wins First Prize.
>
> "Glaster," raised and until recently owned by T. F. Taylor, of this city, delphia; Thornton Reid, of New York; carried off the first prize at High Point, and Edmund Berkeley, of Staunton. N. C., on Tuesday, defeating over twenty of the best dogs in the United States.

in America.

Post-Office Changes. Decennial—May we celebrate many more." There were several other tossis, and Minor T. Anderson, Esq., promoted which were responded to in brief, happy of the last of which was the press, to his place; Mr. W. B. Pate appointed to the vacancy created by the promotion guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Frith.

The Church Guild of the First Presbyterian church of this city will hold a reception in the parlors of the church to-night at 8 o'clock.

In the Police Court yesterday morning In the Police Court yesterday morning this afternoon. Since the departure of Andrew Stewart (colored) was fined 35 the son, George W. Merchant, for Texas her son, George W. Merchant, for Texas H. Walliens that and 800 for our for fighting in the street and $20 for carrying concealed weapons.

Yesterday Z. B. Herndon, special commissioner, sold to Alexander Bowie, Jr. found her body lying upon the parler the house at the southeast corner of floor. Dr. Powell was called in, and Main and Fourth streets for $4,500.

Preparations are being made to construct the wines and towers on the front vided for in the architect's plan of enlargement. RACE WAR IN ARKANSAS

wounding of several others. The affray grew out of the arrest of some negroes, who, it is alleged, insulted some white ladies yesterday. They were to be tried this morning before a justice of the peace. Their act aroused the indignation of the property of the peace of the peace of the peace of the peace of the indignation of unusual merit.

The ladies of the First Baptist church their The $1 Grade Topestry Brussels at attractions of unusual merit. tion of the whites, and about a dozen each of both races met this forenoon at the preliminary investigation by a colored magistrate. As to who started the presence of the presence of the pleasure of all. the row nothing can be learned, but in the shooting that followed both negroes under arrest and two or three others of their friends of Dr. David's Cough Syrup have proven were wounded. The negroes fled, but successful cures in all cases of coughs, sale at special prices to-day only. after arming themselves prepared to re- colds, croups, bronchitis, and other Sharp Bailed.

[By telegraph to the Dispatch.] New YORK, December 1.—Jacob Sharp was taken from Ludlow-Street jail this morning and brought down in a carriage to the county court-house. was accompanied by Warden Keating, Sharp's grandson, and another relative. Sharp was wrapped up in a heavy over-coat and shawl, and he looked to be a very sick man. He has changed greatly in his appearance since the trial, is feeble, and cannot walk even with assistalmost carried Sharp from the entrance to the court-house to the office of Sheriff Grant The order granting a new trial was settled before Judge Barrett, and by mutual agreement between District-Attorney Martine and W. Bourke Cochran, District Attorney offered to make no opposition to the application for his admission to bail, the bond was prepared, and

Fighting Ship-Owners with Dyna-

By telegraph to the Dispatch.) San Francisco, December 1.-Business in San Diego and other California ports is affected by the attitude of the Coast Seemans Union toward the shipcrews, etc., has been renewed with vigor. The union has resorted to force in southern California ports, and Monday night at Rev. William H. Christian leaves to-morrow for Norfolk. His friends here part with him very reluctantly.

San Diegothrew dynamite bombs against a boyco ted bark, tearing a hole in her bows. The officers of the union here declare openly that they understand the manufacture and use of dynamite, and will use their knowledge in the fight

> Public Debt Statement. (By telegraph to the Dispatch.)
> WASHINGTON, December 1.—The debt > statement issued to-day shows the increase of the public debt during the month of November to be $1,490,350.99; clusion that no robbery had been committed. So the case was reported to Chief-of-Police Poe, who submitted it to the Police Board.

Indien in the street with some of the was relieved and left with some of the persons who were present and who took the unfortunate to its home.

| So the case was reported to persons who were present and who took the unfortunate to its home. | S33,245,584.35; cash in Treasury, $504,-550,165.86; gold certificates outling, $90,780,753; silver certificates outl dith represented the city. The following gentlemen, summoned from Manchester, constituted the jury that tried the case: Messrs, D. D. Beattie, J. C. Donley, James A. Harrison, D. L. Tonley, Claude Corbus, John W. Fulcher, ney, Claude Corbus, John W. Fulcher, Henry B. Mosely, Charles Keller, Richard Cottrell, A. W. Buford, S. B. Moore, and R. C. Broaddus.

When the evidence had been considered had been considered the city. The following gentlemen, summoned from Manchester, constituted it by the tried the jury that tried the pury that tried the pury that tried the pury that tried the case: Messrs, D. D. Beattie, J. C. Donley, James A. Harrison, D. L. Tonley, Claude Corbus, John W. Fulcher, Richard Courtenance of Sevenhard.

The largest recent meeting of the Old Dominion Democratic Club was held Dominion Democrati

BRYAN-REID.

MARRIAGE OF A MINISTER IN STAUN-

A Brilliant Scene at the First Presbyterian Church-The Attendants and Decorations.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

First Presbyterian church was most tastefully decorated to-night, and within its explanation of the title, but to other friends it may be said that this "spring festival" will be quietly labored for during the winter months, and, like the early flower for which nature is special. terest—the marriage of Rev. W. S. Plumer Bryan, of Asheville, N. C., and Miss Alice Cochran Reid, daughter of the late Charles Reid, of New York, and stepdaughter of General John Echols, vice-president of the Newport News and

The ceremony took place at 8:30 o'clock. Bev. D. K. McFarland, D. D., stock, finest goods, and lowest prices in There will be a meeting of all the chapters of the Law and Order Leauge at the hall of Chapter No. 1 on Tuesday, December 6th, at 8 P. M.

There will be addresses by representatives of all the chapters, followed by a general discussion of the interests of the order and of the community.

The bust man of the groom was of the posterior of the interests of the order and of the community.

The bust man of the groom was of the community. his brother, George Bryan, of Richmond, Subjects have been assigned and each speaker will be expected to confine his remarks to the matter appointed for his Lieuwijen. Alementon: J. Howard Logan, J.

The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Fergus Reid, of Norfolk, Va. She wore a heavy white satin dress divided second prize with his half sister trimmed with priceless point lace (heir-Belle, of Piedmont. He is out of Trinket looms from the marriages of her mother this city. They buy their Blankets by the case Belle, of Piedmont. He is out of Trinket by Dashing Rover, and the editor of the and mother-in-law) and the bridal veil. direct from the manufacturers, and own to-day American Field says he is the best dog The bridesmaids were in white lace and silk, and separately bere baskets of roses and bows of various colors. As the party entered the church the organist, Profes-bridal party in pairs: Messrs, Bandolph Peyton, E. T. D. Myers, Jr., J. R. Ellerson, John Redwood of Baltimore, Dudley McDonald, Manly B. Curry of St. Paul, John Rutherfoord, William F. Wickham, Edward Mayo, Roger E. Att. Wickham, Edward Mayo, Roger E. Att. A. Gentry, of the State.

Mayor Carring Mayor Carring Personals and Briefs.

Mayor Carring Mayor Carring Personals and Briefs.

Mayor Carring Mayor Carring Personals and Briefs.

Mayor Carring Mayor Carring Personals and Briefs. The Irving-Hall Democratic Club will hold an important meeting to-night at Davis's Hall, corner of Laurel and Cary

Found Bead. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

ALEXANDRIA, December 1, 1887.

Mrs. Mary A. Merchant, a most estimable widow residing at the upper end of Prince street, was found dead several days ago she has been alone and unseen by her neighbors. This afternoon some one went to call on her and after an examination was satisfied that One thousand dollars was yesterday received from General Jubal A. Early by Governor Lee for the Lee-monument fund. This is not the General's first Caucuses to be Held Saturday.

(By telegraph to the Dispatch.)
WASHINGTON, December 1.—There will bers of the Fiftieth Congress in the hall of the House of Representatives Saturday, December 3d, at 3 o'clock P. M., in cancus to consider the question of organization of the next House and the nomition of candidates for the various offices ful effect. We have done in the last three days almost a season's amount of Carpet Insiness, and we have decided Memphis, Tens., December I.—A beheld in the same place at 7 o'clock in until next Monday. Hence for two rived in Memphis this evening and brought the intelligence of an affray which occurred this evening between the cured only at Walter D. Moses & Co.'s whites and negroes, which resulted in the killing of two negroes and the morning at 9 o'clock.

The box-sheet opens this morning at 9 o'clock.

The 75e. grade Tapestry Brussels at 59e. The 85c. grade Tapestry Brussels at Ladies' Fair and Festival, The ladies of the First Baptist church 63c. The object sought to be accomplished 95c.

desire to call attention to their Lunch-Rooms, 629 east Main street. They fornish a nice hot lunch at very low rates from 12 to 3 o'clock P. M. every day except Sunday. Ladies will find this an agreeable place for rest and refreshment, and are earnestly invited to help a good cause by giving us their patronage. 1005 east Main street.

One Holiday Past, Others to Come.

A OLANCE AT THE BEAUTIPUL ARTICLES AT 920 MAIN STREET. "The recent advent of Thanksgiving brings to mind the coming of the other bolidays and the duties that devolve upon all blessed with relatives or dear ance. The warden and deputy sheriff friends, and with taste enough to embody affection in a beautiful gift. other fact is recalled—namely, that the establishment of Goddard & Moses, 920 Main street, contains a carefully and ju dicionsly selected stock of the loveliest articles imaginable. These are eminently suitable for Christmas and New Year's counsel for Sharp, it was decided that ly suitable for Christmas and New Year's Sharp's bail be fixed at $40,000. The presents. The display of precious stones. mounted and unmounted, is a superb ne, including Diamonds, Opals, and sion to bail, the bond was prepared, and a few minutes past noon Sharp was dishigh-class articles for holiday gifts need COST OF BINDING. not seek farther than Goddard & Moses well-filled store, 920 Main street.

> Roebuck's Patent Weather-Strips Keeps out cold wind, snow, rain, and dust; stops windows from rattling; saves fuel and promotes comfort Immense stock on hand at W. S. Sublett's, Broad between Fourth and Fifth. Prices from 2 to 10c. per foot.

> > Cancers Cured.

Dr. A. G. Wollard, of Richmond, Va., is having great success in curing concers.
He has cured hundreds pronounced incurable by other physicians. Send for pamphlet with references and certificates. The Dector can be found at his office, No. 7 north Eixth street (where he has removed and is permanently located), Richmond, Va.

I ECTURE — MAJOR JED. HOTCH-KISS will lecture at the Young Mon Christian Association Hail TUESDAY EVENING, December 6th—subject: "STONEWALL JACK-SON'S VALLEY CAMPAIGN." One third of the proceeds for the Confederate Soliders' Home and the remainder for repairing damages of last summer's storm to the Grace-Street Presbyterian charge. First of a stort series of popular lectures. Tackets, 30 cents—to be had at the Hell.

Coupons can be used in payment of all taxes due the State. A very large proportion of your tax bills can be saved by using Coupons. Full legal protec-tion and indemnity guaranteed. James P. Coopen.

Who Authorized the Arrests? RICHMOND, VA., Dec. 1, 1887. To the Editor of the Dispatch :

Please be kind enough to state in the Bichmond Dispatch that neither Colonel John W. Gordon or my brother William D. Rice, or the companies they represent, authorized me to arrest D. C. Sent, authorized me to arrest D. C. Keever, J. O. McCaslin, W. S. Jørrett, M. A. Poston, James Keever, and James Keever, Jr. The above-named parties were arrested in Keeversville, N. C., last STAUNTON, VA., December 1.—The Friday night on my own responsibility at the request of some of the citizens of ally decorated to-night, and within its Catawba county, who were in possession

On December 30th

we will give away a $75 Domestic Ma-chine, a $25 Cabinet Trunk, an $8 Satchel, and a pair of $7 Shoes. Every $2.50 cash bought of us gives you a chance at these four presents. Largest > 813 and 815 east Broad street, The Shoe- and Trunk-House.

the prices of all kinds of Passementerie Dress Trimmings. Phillip's Digestible Cocoa is more delicious in taste and aroma, and, by the process it is prepared, is rendered more neurishing and more easily digested than any other preparation of come or chorolate, appetite are Anonstona Bittens, prepared by Dr. J. G. R. Siggent & Sons. Beware of counterfeits. Ask for the genuine article. LEVY & Davis say that they show the largest assertment, the vicest styles, and the best-fitting Cloaks, and for such class of goods their prices great cure for Dyspep-is, Constipation, and Kid-ncy Diseases—received fresh from the springs and sold at 25c, per gallon, or five gallons for $1.

AUCTION NALES TO-DAY.

JOHN T. GODDIN, 45; P. M., commissioner's sale of lat at the southeast corner of Broad sale of lot at the southeast corner of Broad and Madison streets.

JAMES B. ElAM, 4a, P. N., trustee's sale of dwelling on Everett street, in Manchester, FRANK D. HILL & CO., 4 P. M., two small dwell-ings on Fifteenth street. GEORGE W. MAVO, 10); A. M., granite crock-ery gaid vases,

WILLIAM JENKINS, 12.25 P. M., bananas, ap-

L. POWERS, agent, I P. M., bananas.

days longer you can buy a Carpet at

The $1.50 Welton Velvets at $1. The $1.75 Moquettes and Royal Weltons at $1.35. FRIDAY-REMNANT-DAY.

> 601 and 603 Broad street. [de 2] PUBLISHERS'

Remnants from all departments on

JULIUS MEYER & SONS

BOOK SALE,

GRAND

20 CASES BOOKS RECEIVED YESTERDAY, AND WILL BE SOLD FOR ABOUT

GO AT ONCE. SAMUEL D. LIT.

Manager for Publishers. LECTURE.

ECTURE -MAJOR JED. HOTCH-

LUNCH.

UNCHES WILL BE SERVED BY the ladies of the WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION, 629 east Main street, EVERY DAY from 12 to 3 celock P. M. RATES: 5 to 25c, a lunch. de 5-14 PERSONAL.

PRESTON BELVIN, FUKNITUKE,
18 Governor street, Richmond, Va.
[40 24]

MILLINERY AND TRIMMINGS. WE HAVE $500 WORTH OF

We invite the close-buying laRes of Richmond to visit our store and Judge for themselves not only the economy, but also the orientuality of selecting from the most complete stock of MIL-LINERY GOODS in the city.